Admire the elegant way the Kitikaé cuts through the water, concealing the boat's real power and giving a strong impression of security, which allowed it to sail with perfect safety from England to the Mediterranean. Born in England, the Kitikaé came in Cannes, on the French Riviera, and later in Paris. Proudly flying the Belgian flag, its power will most certainly impress you!

This "old lady" had to have a determined character to have weathered the ages!

And what would you say to a moment's relaxation on the quarter-deck, under the shelter of the canopy!

In the shadow of the main mast, take advantage of the last of the sun's rays to admire the scenery.
