- Where the river Oise meets the river Seine stands Conflans Ste Honorine, the barges capital. Her national inland waterways museum is a real treasure. Typical old alleys show you to the Montjoie Tower through this historical town.
- Chatou Island, in the middle of the river Seine, inspired Renoir and Guy de Maupassant.
- Pierre Auguste Renoir discovered Chatou and the Seine banks in 1868. Monet and him start painting on the floating barge café "La Grenouillère". Water, light and boating are the beloved themes of the impressionists. Renoir stayed regularly in Chatou to paint the nature and the people.
